

103^D CONGRESS
1ST SESSION

S. RES. 156

Expressing the sense of the Senate with respect to future extensions of the emergency unemployment compensation program.

IN THE SENATE OF THE UNITED STATES

OCTOBER 27 (legislative day, OCTOBER 13), 1993

Mr. NICKLES (for himself, Mr. MOYNIHAN, and Mr. PACKWOOD) submitted the following resolution; which was considered and agreed to

RESOLUTION

Expressing the sense of the Senate with respect to future extensions of the emergency unemployment compensation program.

- 1 Resolved, That it is the sense of the Senate that—
- 2 (1) based on current economic forecasts, the
- 3 Senate does not anticipate the need for the enact-
- 4 ment of a further extension of the emergency unem-
- 5 ployment compensation program, and
- 6 (2) at the earliest possible date, the Administra-
- 7 tion should propose, and the Congress should enact,
- 8 legislation to reform the current unemployment in-
- 9 surance system.
